Beth:

I don't know if you're aware of this effort, but I would really like for you to take on a leadership role if you're interested. If so, I can have my assistant set up a meeting to discuss further – even if it's for you to ask any questions.

Please let me know.

Good afternoon Henry, if you'll see attached, the FOIA project team invested some additional time in developing and assigning our list of improvement actions. We're currently in the midst of data-mining status quo results from FOIAOnline and will be discussing this information as a team next week. Updated documents have been posted to the priority project SharePoint site.

If you, Shannon, or Kevin have any questions, please let me know.
